PRESS RELEASE

Vassiliko Cement Works signed a “Memorandum of Cooperation” with the Pancyprian Volunteerism Coordinative Council (PVCC)

On September 27, at Vassiliko Cement Works facilities, a “Memorandum of Cooperation” was signed between the Company and the Pancyprian Volunteerism Coordinative Council.

The cooperation foreseen in the Memorandum involves mainly the promotion and development of volunteerism, the support of PVCC and volunteer/ Non-Governmental Organizations, the promotion and development of corporate social responsibility, and the coping with modern social challenges/needs in sectors of common interest.

The PVCC was set up in 1973, when the need to coordinate volunteer associations was ascertained for policy making in the sector of volunteer social welfare and for responsible cooperation with the competent services of the Republic of Cyprus in formulating and applying the country’s social policy.

Vassiliko Cement Works continues unflinching supporting and encouraging volunteerism offering support to society because it believes that the development of a solidarity feeling stemming from an organization is connected to work performance improvement, to the feeling of empathy towards fellow human beings, by helping in any possible way.
