A Business Ethos Award for Vassiliko Cement Works

The Business Ethos Awards ceremony was held on May 23rd 2018 at Filoxenia Conference Centre. Four Cypriot owned companies were awarded in three separate categories by the Cyprus Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Cypriot Integrity Forum.

Vassiliko Cement Works received a Public Company Award for the adoption of responsible practices against corruption, reinforcing transparency and implementing a code of ethics, as well as policies and processes in conflict of interest cases.

The honor comes at a most opportune time in contributing towards attracting talented corporate executives, as well as building more result amongst both established and new customers. A development resulting in a rise of productivity and subsequent profit boost that will generate major benefits for shareholders.

The Business Ethos Awards were established as a means of encouraging, acknowledging and honoring corporations taking action against corruption and enhancing transparency. The initiative aims towards raising awareness and forging a mentality, as well as social and moral commitment against business corruption.

President of the Republic of Cyprus Nikos Anastasiades presented the award to Vassiliko Cement Works Executive Chairman Antonis Antoniou.
