Reaction Excellence Awards 2018

Vassiliko Cement Works was selected to be awarded at the REACTION Excellence Awards 2018. The Reaction Excellence Awards is an annual institution, awarding persons, companies and organizations having contributed to society and in particular to children and young people in Cyprus and Greece.

The unanimous decision by REACTION Board of Directors on the award granting was based on our company's long-lasting contribution and tangible support to young people aiming at a prosperous society and at a better Cyprus. Our important contribution constituted a key stepping stone in the implementation of effective actions and programs for mitigating social disparities and problems.

The REACTION Excellence Awards 2018 ceremony will be held at the Presidential Palace on January 25, 2018 at 12:00 in the presence of His Excellency, the President of the Republic of Cyprus, Mr. Nikos Anastasiadis.

We are awarded for the following sections:

- Support to young graduates against unemployment through the Talents Academy
- Support to students through in-service training
- Support to Universities through synergies to carry out studies, educational visits and day conferences
- Professional guidance and information to young students through our participation in the career days of Universities
- Our participation in various programs and projects (financed by the EU) for youth support
- Cooperation with NGOs in projects and actions at schools regarding students' education and updating on the celebration of the UN World Days (Safety Day, Environment Day).
